Top Tips for Defending Marine Personal Injury Claims

Itinerary

This seminar organised by DGB Solicitors is tailored to those involved in the defence of liability claims. Leading professionals in their field will share with you their personal tips and anecdotes in the following 20 minute focused sessions:-

Post accident documentation - completion and retention

Debbie Black of DGB Solicitors (www.dgbsolicitors.co.uk) has in excess of 20 years' experience of defending liability claims. She will give anecdotal examples of how the accurate completion and preservation of documentation can affect the outcome of a claim.

CRU payments – avoiding potential pitfalls

Jo Kirkham has seen all sides of the maritime industry over the last 20 years and is now in private practice with DGB Solicitors (www.dgbsolicitors.co.uk). Jo will cover points to watch out for when dealing with the recovery of benefit by the Compensation Recovery Unit.

Costs – tips to protect your costs' position

Martin Cox of Costsmanager (www.costsmanager.com) has over 20 years' litigation experience with leading claimant and defendant law firms. He will explain what defendants need to identify at the outset of any claim and will provide tips on managing the claimant's costs and maximising your own in the event of a successful defence.

Mediation – the inside track on “winning” at mediation

Tim Wallis, mediator with Expedite Resolution (www.ExpediteResolution.com) and Trust Mediation (www.TrustMediation.org.uk), Chair of the Civil Justice Council's Dispute Resolution Committee will share with you how defendants can use mediation to best effect.

Jurisdiction – what should be your starting point?

A barrister from Quadrant Chambers (www.quadrantchambers.com) will guide you through how the tricky issue of jurisdiction should be approached.

The presentations will run between 12.00pm and 2.00pm. A sandwich lunch will be provided and there will be an opportunity to chat informally with the speakers afterwards.
